NEWSLETTER – APRIL 2017

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN

Important Dates and Events for the Pompano Beach Branch

IMPORTANT REMINDER

ANNUAL ELECTION OF OFFICERS – at April 3rd Branch Meeting.

Nominations may be made from the floor but please ensure that the proposed nominee has been consulted prior to nomination. Due to term limitations on incumbents (who have served 2 or more consecutive terms already) there are seven openings.

The following individuals have graciously agreed to be on the proposed slate:

Co-Directors of Programs – Jane Brofee and Helen Elkiss

Co-Director of Finance - Anna Motzner

Co-Directors of Membership – Kathy McGrath-Burger and Meg Greenfield

There are still two open positions:

Co-Director of Finance (1)

Recording Secretary (1)

Please consider adding your own name to the proposed slate. We also would like to see our new members get involved. Please keep in mind that you will receive as much as guidance as you want/need from former officers so an easy transition will take place.

NEW MEMBERSHIP UPDATE:

Welcome to Vera Barbara Caslavsky of Pompano Beach; phone number is 954-788-2326 (no email address).

Vera received her Doctorate in Chemistry from Charles University located in Prague in the Czech Republic.

Thank you to all the March volunteers:

"Dollars for Scholars Luncheon Committee" Marie Dimond, Carol Combs, Helen Elkiss, Kathy McGrath-Burger, Dorothy Paczoa, Letty Thorell, Emily Farrell, Leona Harbaugh, Nancy Jutzi and Joyce Stevens.

Members who assisted at various March functions were Lianette Marquez, Letty Thorell, Marge Kilroy, Helen Elkiss, Irene Steffan and Joyce Stevens and our current Board of Directors.

It is essential to our continued success as a Branch that we have your support and attendance at Pompano Beach AAUW events. None of our events could happen without each of you and the efforts of our volunteers.

(This issue has three pages)
